

SCROFULOUS SORES

From Head to Waist a mass of Disease, Suffering Terrible. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

I was covered with scrofulous sores from the crown of my head to my waist, suffering so that I could not sleep at night, and could not walk with pillows under my arms. My head was so sore that I could not wear a hat, and in the afternoon I could not see the doctor. I wore a very soft handkerchief on my head. In fact I was a disgusting sight to others and to myself. After having tried all the best physicians in the country, and getting worse all the time, I had given up all hope of getting well when I saw your Cuticura Remedies advertised and procured a set, although with little faith in them. The first application did me much good, and after using four sets, I am happy to say that I am entirely cured. Any of the prominent druggists, mail and farmers in and around Philadelphia will endorse my story.

GEORGE A. HEINSELMAN, Philadelphia, Ill.

Winter disappeared almost as sudden as it came, and farmers are very busy finishing their haying and other farm work.

A Mr. Green, brother of the superintendent, is teaching in district 22.

Schools will be opened in all the districts in town this next month.

We understand Mrs. Trelt will teach a school in the Norwegian language in district 25 this fall. Her husband is also teaching in that language in the township of Manchester. Mrs. Trelt has also opened a dressmaking establishment over Madison & Stenrud's store.

Prof. Williamson of Sacramento, Cal., gave two very interesting entertainments in our village last week: he is a first class ventriloquist and a slight-of-hand performer and his feats were truly wonderful. He was also a member of Co. D, 10th Minn. Infantry, was in Andersonville prison nine months and bears the marks of ill treatment while there. We recommend him to all to go and hear him, and help a fellow soldier who is broken down in health.

Nolan & Hallum shipped boys last week.

Thinking much will be near judging by the fact Mr. Lee is having dressed every day. If you want to do much trading at his store go early in the day or you will be obliged to do some tall waiting. He employs four clerks and a draughtman, besides himself and wife, who are there nearly all the time. Mrs. Corv, their daughter, also clerks in the store after a clock p. m. until supper time. The other general stores are also well filled and do a good business but carry lighter stocks.

Another little one arrived at the home of Erik Johnson the other day, all parties doing well.

Peace be with her memory.
