SERIOUS SENIOR DIGNITY IS LOST ON DRESS UP DAY

Serious seniors, acting in such a manner as to make the frenzied freshman green with envy, began their final activities as members of Moorhead high school this morning with their dress up day. Imaginations ran riot as the 115 young men and women soon to be graduated, gathered in the school. Classes were disturbed, to put it mildly, until the romping shepherdesses, black men, and other weird creations of the mind, climbed into cars and trucks and went merrily on their way for the second pre-graduation activity, the senior picnic.

On the more impressive program for the seniors is the baccalaureate service to be held in the high school auditorium Sunday at 8 p. m. when Rev. S. J. Hedelund will speak on "Traffic Signals on the Highway of Life." Bringing to a close the final week of school will be the Commencement day to be marked Friday, May 29, in the high school auditorium.
