Music Club Tea To Be Friday

Fargo Fine Arts Club Members To Be Guests

Members of the music section of the Fargo Fine Arts club will be guests of the Moorhead Music club at a meeting at Trinity Lutheran church Friday at 2:30 p. m.

This meeting will be devoted to a study of the life and work of Johann Sebastian Bach, and an all-Bach program will be presented. Mrs. Henry Welta is in charge of the research subject for this meeting.

Miss Ruth Berge will play two pipeorgan selections, a choral and a fugue, both by Bach. A ladies sextet, composed of Mrs. Paul Christianson, Mrs. J. VanderBos, Mrs. Daniel Preston, Miss Gertrude Roe, Mrs. Harold Warner and Mrs. George Askegaard will sing two songs. Their first number will be "Doth Then the Law of the Spirit," from the motet "Jesus Priceless Treasure." They will sing a two-part song, "Jesus, My Beloved Saviour," from Cantata No. 78. Mrs. Bertram McGarrity will play the organ accompaniment for this selection.

Miss Ruth Anestad will play, on the piano, a prelude and a fugue in B flat, both from Bach.

Following the program, tea will be served at the home of Mrs. Roy Harrisville, 222 Seventh street south. Chairman of arrangements for the tea is Mrs. C. C. Dosland, and assisting her are Mrs. J. E. Janzen and Mrs. Harold Knutson.

The non-circle members of the Trinity Lutheran Ladies Aid will sponsor the annual silver centennial tea, to be held Thursday afternoon and evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Roy Harrisville, 222 Seventh street south.

The committee making the arrangements for the tea is composed of Mrs. Thomas Kloster, chairman, Mrs. P. B. Erickson, Mrs. Arthur Diercks, Mrs. Henry Stiening and Mrs. T. O. Burgess.

The afternoon tea will be from 3:00 to 5:00 o'clock. On the program in the afternoon will be Miss Eleanor Bonchert who will sing, and Miss Edith Sundt, who will play the violin. Miss Ruth Anestad will accompany them.

In the evening, tea will be served from 7:00 to 10:00. On the program will be Justin Dyrud, who will sing, Leonell Fraese, violinist, and Jarl Dyrud, who will accompany them.

Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. C. G. Dosland, Mrs. I. T. Stenerson, Mrs. F. M. Sandness, Mrs. S. O. Tang and Mrs. Eberman Nordlie. The public is invited.

Delegates Convene For Tuberculosis Meeting

St. Paul, Oct. 2 (UP)—Nearly one thousand delegates from 13 mid-west states met today for the 27th annual Mississippi valley conference on tuberculosis.

Delegates were guests of the Hennepin county tuberculosis association and the Ramsey county public health association.

Dr. Everett K. Geer, general arrangements chairman, said the meetings of lay and medical workers were held to discuss tuberculosis prevention methods. The conference will continue for three days.
