

Spuds Defeat Baby Dragons, 26-6, In City Title Tilt

HERREID STARS IN DECISIVE VICTORY OVER M. S. T. C. HIGH

SCORES THREE TOUCHDOWNS AND PASSES TO THOMPSON FOR FOURTH

Gilpin Gridders Stave Off Onslaught Through First Quarter But Trail 12-0 At Half

By ED EASTMAN
With Captain Grant Herreid, dynamic fullback, crashing the center of the line, driving off tackle, and skirting the ends for consistent gains, the Moorhead High School Spuds ground out a 26-6 victory over a stubborn M. S. T. C. Baby Dragon football team in a game played this morning on the M. S. T. C. field. Herreid scored three of the Spud touchdowns and passed to Curtis Thompson for the fourth to furnish the "punch" to an attack which rolled up a total of 17 first downs.

The Baby Dragons, fighting hard, held off the Spud onslaught throughout the first quarter and it was not until the second period that Herreid crashed over for the first score from the 20-yard line after lugging the ball practically single-handed in a series of plays which started on the Spud 20-yard line. The try for point was blocked by Bob Peterson, Baby Dragon half-back.

Passes to Thompson
The second score came after Herreid and Barney Lotzer had altered the game by carrying the ball to the Baby Dragon 32-yard line, from which point Herreid fired a pass to Curtis Thompson who went over the goal line standing up. The try for point again failed and the count remained 12-0 as the half ended.

Coming back strong in the second half, the Baby Dragons drove down the field from their own 20-yard line to score on a pass from Tommy McCormick to Ralph Peterson. The college high eleven had maneuvered into scoring position by virtue of a 22-yard run around end by Ed Johnson, husky fullback, and a 25-yard pass from McCormick to Ralph Peterson. The try for point failed, leaving the count 12-6 in the Spuds' favor.

Then the Spuds flashed fourth quarter heroics, intercepted a pass on the Baby Dragon 35-yard marker and scored in a series of line drives. Larson kicked the point. The final tally came when the Spuds recovered a Baby Dragon fumble on the 25-yard line and drove for a score, with Herreid again going over. Larson again converted. The game ended without any further threats from either team.

Larson and Midgarden Star
Doug Larson at center and Jim Midgarden at guard stood out in the Spud line, while Phil Costain, at center, and Jerry Grover, tackle, were outstanding for the Baby Dragons in the line, with Ed Johnson at fullback the outstanding Baby Dragon ballcarrier.

Moorehead High M. S. T. C. High
Goslee.....RE.....Whitnack
Probstfeld.....RT.....Bly
Sherrill.....RG.....Hoag
Larson.....C.....Costain
Midgarden.....LG.....Bryson
Peterson.....LT.....Grover
Edling.....LE.....Pederson
Lotzer.....QB.....McCormick
Thompson.....RH.....Peterson
Margardt.....LB.....Trichter
Herreid.....FB.....Johnson
Officials—Mickelson, referee; Don Gates, umpire; Ingersoll, head linesman.

Substitutions—Moorhead high—
Smart, Huntsman, Gunderson, Williams and Welch; M. S. T. C. High—
Nelson, Thysell, Ogren, Hazeltine, and Zuehlsdorf.

FORKS DEFEATS WAHPETON, 14-6

FIRST SETBACK OF YEAR FOR COACH MARTY ENGH'S CLUB; PASSES BRING SCORES

Grand Forks, N. D., Oct. 27—Grand Forks Central high school's running game was effectively bottled up by a strong Wahpeton eleven here last night but the Forkers unleashed an aerial attack that netted them a 14 to 6 triumph.

It was the first defeat for Marty Engh's club this year and it was Grand Forks' seventh straight victory.

The Wop line held the Forkers for downs on the 5-yard line in the opening period, but the Maroons chalked up their first touchdown in the second quarter when Burkhardt passed to Brouse who ran 25 yards for the score. Burkhardt dropped the point. A forward lateral netted the Forkers their second score in the third period. Again Burkhardt converted.

The Wops scored in the final quarter. After Augustine had registered a first down on the 5-yard line, Fredericks plunged over the line.

Crookston Player Runs Back Kickoff For Score
Crookston, Oct. 27—East Grand Forks defeated Crookston 13 to 6 here Friday. Spence of Crookston returned the opening kickoff 90 yards for Crookston's score. The Little Green Wave came back systematically to score twice, winding up its season with a victory.

Local Grid Spotlight Focuses On Dragon-Bison Battle Next Saturday

DILWORTH ELEVEN HOLDS MAHNOMEN TO 26-6 DECISION

THROWS PANIC INTO INVADERS WITH TOUCHDOWN MARCH IN FIRST PERIOD

Two Touchdowns By High-Powered Crew Due To Inexperience Of Pass Defense

A game Dilworth high school football team, outclassed and out-weighted, but never outfought, turned a mediocre season into a partially successful one Friday afternoon when it held the stampeding Mahnomen machine to a 26 to 6 triumph on the Dilworth field.

Trampled by Moorhead, Pelican Rapids, and the Teachers college high school teams during a hectic season, the Locomotives rose to great heights in their game stand against an eleven which led the entire state in prep grid scoring until a week ago.

Sought Big Total
Mahnomen, reded to second place in the list of high scorers last week, came to Dilworth with the expressed idea of rolling up a total that would definitely intrench it on the peak again.

But the doughty Locomotives had other ideas. In the very first period they marched from their own 20-yard line right down the field to Mahnomen's 19 and Altobello passed to Captain Norberg for a touchdown that spotted the home club a 6 to 0 lead at the end of the period and gave berth to near panic on the Mahnomen bench.

But the speedy burlly backs of the invading club got under way in the second period and Mahnomen led 13 to 6 at the half. They added another 13 points in the third quarter, and then Dilworth braced and held their tilted opponents scoreless in the final period.

Line Play Brilliant
The Dilworth line, outweighed at least 10 pounds to the man, checked the Mahnomen thrusters at every turn. Mahnomen was forced to take to the air for the first score, a long aerial putting the ball on the three yard line. Twice Dilworth repulsed the attack. Then the weight of the invaders told, and the ball was pushed across.

Mahnomen's second and third scores also were the result of passes, long ones which might easily have been intercepted by Dilworth backs had not these inexperienced youths overrun the ball and allowed Mahnomen receivers to leap up and catch the ball behind their backs.

The fourth Mahnomen score came after Dilworth had been penalized 15 yards to their own 5 yard line. Norberg got off a bad punt and the invaders pushed it over in three line plays.

The game wound up the football season for the Locomotives.

CARLS, OLES IN TRADITIONAL TIFF

BOTH TEAMS HAMPERED BY INJURIES; CARLETON IS SLIGHT FAVORITE

Northfield, Minn., Oct. 27 (UP)—One of the bitterest games in the annual Carleton-St. Olaf battles was expected today as the teams met on the Carleton field in a homecoming contest.

Both teams will be without services of several stars. Stearns and Senior probably will be out of the Carleton lineup and Captain Kermit Anderson may not start for the Oles.

Carleton, with four victories this season, was a slight favorite. St. Olaf has lost one game and won three.

NEMZEK MACHINE ROLLS OVER ST. CLOUD, 13-6, REMAINS UNDEFEATED

Conceded Excellent Chance Of Upsetting North Dakota State In Standout Tilt

By DICK HACKENBERG

The local grid spotlight, which has cast its flickering, sputtering glow this way and that all season long, comes to rest next Saturday afternoon in one concentrated, steady glare on Memorial Field where the Dragons of Moorhead State Teachers' college battle the Bison of North Dakota State.

The Dragons, who remained undefeated by coming from behind to defeat St. Cloud Teachers 13 to 6 at St. Cloud yesterday, are conceded an excellent chance of upsetting the Thundering Herd of Bison grid-ders.

With Vincent Yatchak and Marco Gotta, offensive stars declared ineligible by the Northern Teachers' college conference, back in the lineup against the Bison, Coach Alex J. Nemzek will present a formidable front to Casey Finnegan's machine.

Lots of Reserves
Many factors point to a Dragon triumph this year. In the first place, Nemzek is blessed with an abundance of reserve power. The Dragons have shown plenty of offensive punch without the services of Yatchak and Gotta and the addition of these two men will add much to the ball-toting department.

Secondly, the Dragons will be facing the Bison a week following the North Dakota State team's hardest battle of the year, its traditional tilt with the University of North Dakota this afternoon. The Bison may suffer a heavy letdown after today's game.

Thirdly, the Bison have yet to play South Dakota State at Brookings, Oklahoma City University at Oklahoma City, and Texas Tech at Lubbock, Tex. Of necessity they will be pointing for these games, especially the South Dakota State affair, the final tilt on the Bison loop schedule.

Concordia is the standard of comparison between the two clubs. The Bison beat the Cobbers 6 to 0 in the season's opener and the Dragons tied the Cobbers 13 to 13 the following week, which leaves little to choose from between the three clubs.

First to Score
St. Cloud, in pushing across a touchdown in the first quarter of yesterday's game, became the first conference opponent to score on the Dragons this season. Fernich, former Crosby-Trouton star, intercepted a lateral pass and raced 80 yards for the Granite City club's only touchdown.

The Dragons opened up with an aerial attack to deadlock the count in the second quarter. Two passes brought the ball to the St. Cloud 15-yard line and another overhead toss, Milt Hollister to Willard Burke, netted the touchdown.

Concordia's Julian Bjerkness placed kick the extra point that gave Moorhead a 7 to 6 lead at halftime.

Hollister's 27 yard gallop around end from kick formation gave the Dragons their second counter in the final period. Bjerkness' try for the point was wide.

13 First Downs
The Dragons amassed 13 first downs to St. Cloud's 4. Two of St. Cloud's first downs were by penalty. Only one was registered by rushing. At that, St. Cloud was only one team in the conference to hold the Dragons under 17 points and shares honors with Concordia in holding the Dragons as low as 13. Other Dragon scores have been 19-7, 26-0, 17-0, and 44-0.

Hollister paced the Dragon attack and Bjerkness was outstanding in the line.

Other games next week send Concordia to Sioux Falls to meet Augustana in a non-conference clash and Moorhead high school's Spuds plan to continue their football series with the Teachers' college high school's Baby Dragons either Friday afternoon or Saturday morning, barring unpleasant weather.

Authorizing him to deputize his body guard. The Kingfish rewarded the girl with a kiss.

GOPHERS FAVORED IN EVERY QUARTER EXCEPT IOWA CITY

SOLEM AND HIS HAWKEYES CONFIDENT THEY CAN UPSET BIERMAN MACHINE

Five Players Who Never Started A Game For Iowa Will Be In Lineup

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 27 (UP)—College spirit flamed high today as Iowa's football team made ready for a "do-or-die" attempt to smash Minnesota's gridiron giants before 53,000 persons, largest throng ever to attend a football game in this state.

Minnesota, considered one of the leading contenders for the national title, was expected to win everywhere except in this little college town.

Geared For Comeback
After surprising defeat by Nebraska, 14-13, and Iowa State, 31-6, Iowa was geared for a mighty comeback in its second conference game. Coach Ossie Solem has sent the Iowa boys through a lot of secret maneuvers during the week and every loyal son of Iowa expects the Hawkeyes to come up with some gridiron magic that even Minnesota's Vikings won't be able to match.

At least five players who never have started a football game for Iowa were expected to answer the opening whistle. The only sure thing about the Iowa lineup was that Dick Crayne would start at fullback and Oze Simmons, the Texas negro, at right halfback.

"We had a great football team once this season when we beat Northwestern," said Coach Solem, "and we'll have another one today. The morale of the players is better than at any time since the Northwestern game."

Gophers Aren't Bragging
Minnesota has experienced some evil autumn afternoons in Iowa City, so the Gophers didn't come here boasting of their 20-0 triumph over North Dakota or their 13-7 victory over Pittsburgh.

"We expect one of our hardest games of the season from Iowa," said Coach Bernie Bierman. In 1928 Iowa upset Minnesota 7-6, in the last period, and the following year beat the Gophers in the last two minutes of play, 9-7.

Minnesota was in tip-top shape, with its star ball carriers, Peg Lund, Stan Kostka, 215-pound fullback, and Julius Alphonse all ready to make their first assault of the season on a conference line.

MALONE GOES TO ST. LOUIS CARDS

CHARLIE GRIMM ELEVATED TO VICE PRESIDENCY OF CHICAGO CUBS

Chicago, Oct. 27 (UP)—First move in a shakeup of the Chicago Cubs under its new regime came today with the disposal of Pat Malone, right hand pitcher, who has spent seven years with the North Side team.

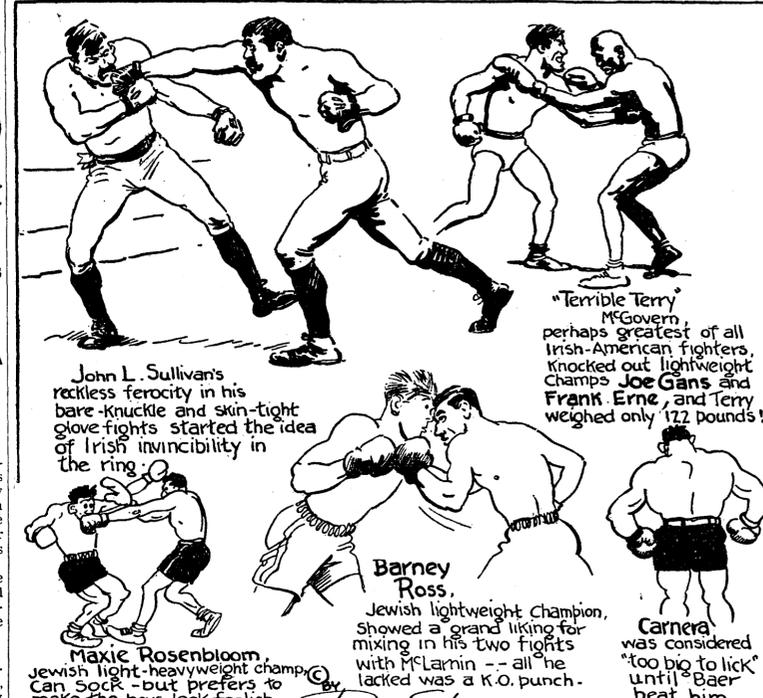

Manager Charlie Grimm, elevated to the position of vice president in addition to his managerial duties at yesterday's meeting of the board of directors gave Malone and a sum of cash to the St. Louis Cardinals for a rookie catcher, James Kenneth O'Dea.

When It Was The "Irish Knack"
Years ago it was supposed that only the Irish had the fighting knack. Look back at the old days when John L. Sullivan, Jack Dempsey (the Nonpareil), Jack McAuliffe, Terry McGovern, Matty Matthews, Jimmy Barry, Ike Verrier (the Belfast Spider), Billy Murphy, Dave Sullivan, and all that lot were holding the championships. And a little later James J. Corbett.

And before that lived the traditional hero John C. Heenan, who went to England and beat Sayers—only the crowd tore the ring down and stopped the fight when Sayers (a little fellow, little more than a midget) although champion of England) was beaten helplessly and the referee called it a draw.

NATIONALITIES

By Robert Edgren

John L. Sullivan's reckless ferocity in his bare-knuckle and skin-tight glove-fights started the idea of Irish invincibility in the ring.

Maxie Rosenbloom, Jewish light-heavyweight champ, can stop—but prefers to make the boys look foolish.

Barney Ross, Jewish lightweight champion, showed a grand liking for mixing in his two fights with McLamin -- all he lacked was a K.O. punch.

Carnera was considered "too big to lick" until Baer beat him.

Text Rickard sat at his big mahogany desk one afternoon and mulled over the possibilities for a heavy-weight championship fight that would draw the kind of a gate he liked. Scene of the fight, preferably New York. Tex knew his New York and the kind of a fight that would pack 'em in. All of a sudden Tex began to think aloud.

What I've got to do is develop a big Johnny Dundee and a big Benny Leonard and match 'em. But where will I find 'em in heavyweight sizes? That's the trouble."

Tex never had his ambition satisfied. He had Jack Dempsey, who might partly qualify because there's some Jewish blood in his family. And he developed Firpo, who was half-Italian. But most of the Jewish fighters of that day stopped at the light heavyweight class, with the clever and rugged Battling Levinsky. And the Italian giants were just beginning to come along.

Camera and Max Baer would have been great material for Rickard. How he would have hallowed that into the millions! It drew pretty well with Tex, but of course, nothing to what such a fight would have drawn with Rickard's genius behind it.

The Heavyweight Situation—And Nationality
In the heavyweight class just now we have a funny situation. Max Baer is the undisputed champion, and it isn't likely that Primo Carnera will disturb his title holding. Primo has done no more fighting since Baer licked him, but if he is just waiting for a popular demand that he be shoved in against Baer for a return match he'll have a long wait.

There's no record of a challenger working his way up to a championship fight going back to beat his victims over again to prove there was no mistake the first time. It isn't considered necessary. They didn't ask Dempsey to go back and knock out Fred Fulton again to prove the first kayak wasn't a fluke. But perhaps this matter of having the proper descent for a fighter is bothering Johnston. You see, Hammas is American born, regular American, graduate of a great American university, but his ancestors came from Austria. And this is the first time any fighter of Austrian descent has threatened to break into the championship ranks. Jimmy probably thinks it isn't regular. There aren't a million Austrians in New York, Brooklyn, Long Island City and Hoboken combined—so where the following?

I don't think it would make any difference to Max Baer. He takes them as they come.

50,000 Expected To See Penn-Navy Tilt
Philadelphia, Oct. 27 (UP)—A crowd of nearly 50,000 was expected to watch Pennsylvania and the undefeated Navy team in action today. Penn was handicapped by the loss of injured Bill Kurlich, fullback. Navy was at full strength.

MAC ONLY LAD WHO'LL SELECT WINNER IN YALE-ARMY BATTLE
By HENRY McLEMORE
New Haven, Oct. 27 (UP)—Who? Army and Yale.
What? Football.
When? Today.
Where? The Bowl.
Why? 70,000 customers at three bucks a head.
Now that I've done by reportorial duty and given you enough facts to satisfy even a school of journalism dean, I hope you will bear with me while I try to figure out what is going to happen when Soldier meets Bulldog and vice versa.
If I do happen to hit upon the answer I will be unique in New Haven, for of the thousands gathered here for the game, not one—and that goes for both coaches—has announced his platform. Right now the streets are filled with gents waving fistfuls of serious money, and yelling that they'll take the team you don't want. They had

ARMY-YALE GAME TOPS MOMENTOUS REGIONAL BATTLES

MORE THAN 70,000 FANS EXPECTED TO WITNESS NEW HAVEN BRAWL

Holy Cross Meets Colgate In Another Standout; Dixie Promised Hottest Fights

By JACK CUDDY
New York, Oct. 27 (UP)—Topped by the Army-Yale classic, an even dozen momentous regional battles headline today's bang-up mid-season program of 220 football games. Each of the 12 encounters will have a direct bearing on the nation's five big races for sectional championships.

More than 70,000 fans, largest crowd of the season thus far, were expected at New Haven for the traditional meeting between the Elis and Cadets—a meeting which should prove whether the unbeaten but untested Soldiers will be important contenders for the eastern championship.

Holy Cross vs. Colgate
In the other outstanding eastern brawl, the unbeaten Holy Cross Crusaders were assigned to repel the invasion of Colgate's wily Red Raiders at Worcester, Mass. If the Crusaders win this one it will be a long step toward a Rose Bowl ticket.

Dixie will see the hottest and probably the most significant fighting of the day. Five contenders for the Southern championship are taking the field: Alabama, Duke, Tulane, Vanderbilt and Louisiana State. In the Southeastern conference, Alabama faces Georgia; Tulane tangles with Georgia Tech., and Vanderbilt tackles Louisiana State.

Illinois Tackles Michigan
Two unbeaten Big Ten contenders and an undefeated aspirant for Big Six honors see action in the Midwest. In the Big Ten, unbeaten Minnesota meets strong Iowa, and undefeated Illinois stacks up against Michigan. In the Big Six, Iowa State risks its perfect record against formidable Nebraska.

On the Pacific Coast two big conference games stand out. Unbeaten Stanford faces smarming Southern California, and undefeated Washington tackles California. In the Southwest, unbeaten Rice collides with Texas in a game that ultimately may decide the conference title.

JAMESTOWN TRIPS FARGO HIGH, 7-6

WHEELER RUNS 82 YARDS FOR FIRST TOUCHDOWN BUT MIDGETS LOSE

Jamestown, Oct. 27—Jamestown high school turned back the threat of the mighty Fargo Midgets here last night by handing Harry Bridgeford's team its first defeat of the season, 7 to 6.

The setback virtually blasted the Midgets out of the mythical state championship picture, just as the Blue Jays did last year in their game with the Midgets at Moorhead.

Ernie Wheeler gave the Midgets the lead with an 82 yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Jamestown scored on a pass, Schneider to Richmond, in the second period. Deary skirted end for the extra point.

A juggled pass, following a five yard penalty near the Jamestown goal thwarted the Midgets' desperate attack in the waning minutes.

MANKATO PEDS IN WIN OVER WINONA

KEEFE AND GLADHILL LEAD ATTACK IN SMASHING 13-0 TRIUMPH

Mankato, Minn., Oct. 27 (UP)—Scoring in the first and third periods, Mankato Teachers drove to a 13 to 0 victory over Winona Teachers here last night. Keefe and Gladhill led the Mankato attack. Winona on a series of passes had a first down on the Mankato 10-yard line in the third quarter but failed to score.

Notre Dame Meets Wisconsin Elemen

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 27 (UP)—Notre Dame closed its home season today against Wisconsin before an estimated crowd of 30,000. The Irish, victors in their last two games against Purdue and Carnegie Tech., were favored over the young Badger team, which last week lost to Purdue, 14-0.

Princeton, Cornell In 23rd Encounter
Princeton, N. J., Oct. 27 (UP)—Unbeaten Princeton and staggering Cornell met in Palmer stadium today for their 23rd football encounter. With Garry Levan back in the lineup Princeton was heavily favored.