

Record Field In Dragon Relays Saturday

EARLY ENTRY LIST ASSURES OVER 200 ATHLETES IN MEET

COLLEGE, HIGH SCHOOL, AND GRADE THINLIES IN CLASSIC AT M. S. T. C.

Preliminaries In Special Events Scheduled For Morning Finals In Afternoon.

By ED EASTMAN

Memorial field, Moorhead State Teachers college, will hum with activity Saturday as over 200 athletes ranging from well-developed college men to spindly grade school youngsters compete for honors in their respective divisions in the fourth annual Dragon relays.

At the same time the annual May Festival at North Dakota A. C. will attract a large field of North Dakota high school thinlincs.

From 10:30 in the morning until 4:30 in the afternoon a total of 43 events will be run off in the Dragon relays, preliminaries in a number of individual events being set for the morning.

Local Schools Enter.

Among local entries Concordia is entering about 20 men while about 15 athletes from M. S. T. C., whose track squad was badly crippled in the intra-squad football game last Monday, will participate. Twenty-one Moorhead high school and 10 junior high school athletes are entered with a likelihood that several grade school teams will enter the 300-yard shuttle relay, the only event for grade school thinlincs. M. S. T. C. high will have about 10 men in the high school division, six in the junior high group and an entry in the grade class.

Other colleges which will be represented by strong entries are University of North Dakota freshmen, Wahpeton Science School, Mayville and possibly North Dakota A. C. Last year the college meet was held separate from the Dragon relays with the Wahpeton Wildcats nosing out the Dragons for honors by the margin of half a point.

High School Group.

In the high school division, Ferguson Falls, the defending champion, will seek to retain its crown against Frazee, Detroit Lakes, Hawley, Perham, Pelican Rapids, and Breckridge in addition to the two local schools. Most of these schools are expected to have entries in the junior high division, also.

Following the recent rains, the track has been worked on constantly and is in excellent condition, with a likelihood that several records may be shattered.

For the lover of relay races, Memorial field will be a veritable Paradise with a total of 13 relays on the schedule, five in the college division, five in the high school section, two in the junior high and one in the grade group.

Special Events Carded.

Special events which will be run off include the low hurdles, shot put, 100 yard dash, discus throw and high hurdles in the college and high school divisions. In the junior high section a 50 yard dash will be staged. Preliminaries in all special events in the first two divisions are slated for the morning.

Entries from the local schools and colleges who will compete are as follows: Concordia—Haight, Thornby, Thvedt, Fiskum, Foster, Gustafson, Huseby, Holth Thompson, Schneider, Peterson, Lian, Bonk, Jensen, Quam, Stoeve, Tjomsland and Quale.

Dragon Entries.

Moorhead State Teachers college—Burke, Yatchak, Hull, Nelson, Johnson, Webber, Martin, DuVall, Cook and Anderson along with several others who will be named Saturday.

Moorhead high—Hopeman, Newton, Ness, Hansmann, Peterson, W. Knapp, Boothroyd, Kossick, Schutt, Vander, Horck, Lambe, Erickson, H. McArthur, D. Mungo, Perske, Ecklund, Odin, R. Knapp, Buehrow, Asichen and Freberg.

M. S. T. C. high—Nelson, Zulisdorf, Gwynn, Fountain, Grover, Hirsch, Archer and Hegland.

Moorhead junior high—Corcoran, Wright, Olson, Panchot, Lotzer, Beckwith, Henneman, Logan, Krepis and Olmstead.

M. S. T. C. junior high—B. Baldwin, D. Baldwin, Thyssel and Campbell.

War Admiral 8-5 Favorite To Take Kentucky Derby

Louisville Flooded Again—This Time By Crowds Betting Their Wad On Son of Man O' War; Rest of Field Weak In Early Showings.

Louisville, May 17 (UP)—Louisville was flooded again today—with the golden negotiable dollars of those who like War Admiral in the 63rd running of the Kentucky derby.

The son of Man O' War—ol' Big Red himself—stood at 8 to 5 in the betting marts and was a cinch to be hammered down to even money by post time tomorrow afternoon.

War Admiral had no reason to feel proud over his position as favorite, however, because it was given to him in the form of a left handed compliment. He is getting the play because of his rivals' weakness.

Others Display Flaws.

Outside of the admiral there isn't a three-year-old in the field who hasn't displayed his flaws in public. The Admiral may display his tomorrow, but there is no getting around the fact that right now he is the only solid horse in the bunch that will shoot for the $50,000 prize. That is, off three-year-old form, and that's the only form the smart boys and girls care about. The admiral won the Chesapeake in Maryland in impressive fashion and his workouts have been of the highest order.

All the others have blown hot and cold. Poppon may display his tomorrow, but there is no getting around the fact that right now he is the only solid horse in the bunch that will shoot for the $50,000 prize. That is, off three-year-old form, and that's the only form the smart boys and girls care about.

The weather will decide the fate of several nominees, and right now the weather is unpredictable. It cleared up yesterday and was bright and nice today, but the weather man says he has a feeling it will come up mud on the morrow, and if it does, one of the most wide open races in years will be thrown straight into the laps of the gods.

Tony Returns.

New York, May 7.—Tony Cazoneri held the lightweight championship twice and still doesn't believe it rightfully belongs to Lou Ambers, who beat him last time they met. Friday night in Madison Square Garden Tony is going in quest of the title again. Even Tony's friends admit that he has gone over the hill as a fighter. But there still is enough left of the old Cazoneri to make things interesting for any lightweight now campaigning, and this should be a steaming brawl.

If it is, it will be only in the lightweight tradition, for down the years the little men have written a stirring story in punches. Gans and Nelson under a broiling sun at Goldfield—Nelson and Wolgast in their savage forty-round struggle at Point Richmond, Cal.—Leonard and Tender in the Yankee Stadium—these are but a few of the chapters of this story that ranks second only to heavyweight history in its appeal. And the story goes away back—well beyond the time when Jack McAuliffe and Jim Carney fought seventy-four rounds on the sands of Revere beach in Massachusetts and were halted only when the tide came in and the water swirled around their rankles.

Probably Gans.

The greatest? It depends upon whose opinion you seek. Gans—Nelson—Leonard—Cazoneri—these would get a lot of votes. And so would a gnarled little fellow named Kid Lavigne, who came punching out of Saginaw, Mich., a half century ago and once beat the great Joe Walcott in fifteen bloody rounds at Maspeth over which the old-timers still shake their heads in admiration.

Leonard and Tender.

But among the lightweight champions I've seen, I think I'll take that between Leonard and Tender in the Yankee stadium on a summer night in 1923.

They had fought once before, in 1922, a no-decision bout of twelve rounds in Boyle's Thirty Acres, the spidery wooden structure that Tex Rickard originally built in Jersey city for Dempsey and Carpentier in 1921. In that first clash, Tender came close to knocking Benny out but when he was in distress Leonard's wits didn't leave him. He literally talked Lew out of the title that night—because even though it was a no-decision affair, the title would have changed hands on a knockout. Tender cracked Benny on the chin and Benny's legs turned to rubber, but he grinned at Tender and said something to him. This distracted Tender's attention for only a second or two—but Leonard moved swiftly, and when Tender recovered from his brief amazement, his big chance was gone.

The Philadelphia southpaw had made a great showing in that fight, even if he did miss his clutch at glory when it was only an arm's length away, and a return match was inevitable.

TWINS LOSE AGAIN AS DUKES, PIRATES TAKE LEAGUE LEAD

CROOKSTON STAGES NINTH-INNING RALLY TO BEAT F-M ENTRY, 4 TO 3.

Dave Stevens Holds Opponents To Three Hits In First Eight Innings of Play.

By UNITED PRESS

Duluth and Crookston today retained the only undefeated teams in Northern league baseball. Each nine has won two games.

The Duluth Dukes made it two in a row over Wausau, winning 14 to 1 behind the hurling of Emil Tikpick. Red Gleason hit two home runs and Felderman and Tikpick each socked out one for the winners.

Crookston staged a ninth inning rally on the home lot to defeat the Fargo-Moorhead Twins, 4 to 3, in the tightest ball game in the polar loop yesterday.

Pegs Even Series

During the first eight frames Dave Stevens, Fargo pitcher allowed but three hits. Crookston scored three runs in the final session.

Buck Rodgers, Marion Clausen and Benny Batavia, a new third baseman, got three hits each for the Twins. Stevens got the other F-M bingle. In the ninth inning Stevens struck out the first man to face him but a walk, two doubles and a single accounted for the defeat. Russell Letman was slated to pitch today's game for the Twins.

Elaborate ceremonies were planned for the opening home game of the Twins Saturday at Barnett field. A large crowd is expected to be in the stands when the teams take the field at 4 p. m.

At Jamestown, the Winnipeg Maroons evened their series with the Jims, winning 12 to 6. The Maroons belted out three homers.

Eau Claire Wins

At Eau Claire the home team took advantage of seven Superior errors and 12 of their own hits to win 11 to 2. Ralph Willard settled down after a shaky start and went the route.

YANKEES, TIGERS AGAIN TIED AT LOOP PINNACLE

New York, May 7 (UP)—The Yankees had company atop the American league today. Deadlocked with the Detroit Tigers and the Boston Red Sox.

Detroit created the three-way tie by knocking off New York yesterday, 12-6, after losing the first two games of the series. Nobody has paid much attention to the Red Sox since they nosed into the sixth place last season. But the Red Sox won their fifth game in six starts yesterday by nosing out the St. Louis Browns, 2-1.

Manager Mickey Cochrane was the hero of Detroit's victory. With the score tied 6-6 in the sixth, he hit a home run which proved the winning run. The Tigers, however, went on to score five more runs in the eighth.

The Philadelphia Athletics stayed in fourth place by downing the Chicago White Sox, 3-1. Roy Weatherly's homer with a man on base in the eighth inning proved the deciding hit in Cleveland's 4-2 victory over Washington.

Brilliantly pitched games featured the three National league games, Van Mungo, Brooklyn fireball hurler, held the Pirates to seven hits and beat the league leaders 9-5. Lee Grissom, Cincinnati rookie southpaw let the Giants down with five hits, blanking them 4-0.

Bill Lee, Cubs' ace, gave the Phillies only one hit as Chicago won a five-inning game halted by rain 1-0.

TOMY'S SPORTS PARADE

By HENRY MCLEMORE

Churchill Downs, Louisville, Ky., May 7 (UP)—Tomorrow I will give you the winner of the Kentucky derby. I could do it now, for I already have the information but I fear the consequences. Too many dreadful things might happen. A revelation at this time would surely rock the universe, and who wants to be all shaken up like a vanilla frappe?

If I blow the whistle now, as we say over at the club, can you guess what will happen? Well, in the first place, there'd be no use in running the derby. Colonel Matt Winn could just pay off the winner and we'd all have to go home. But I'm not quite ready to go home, for Louisville's such a delightful place in the spring. You may get hold of a warm julep and a cold blonde once in a while, but you can't blame that on the town—it is likely to happen in Zanesville or Peoria just as easily.
