COSTAIN ONE OF 432 NEW CADETS

MOORHEAD YOUTH AT WEST POINT ENTERS INTENSIVE INSTRUCTION COURSE.

Phillip M. Costain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Costain, 709 Ninth street south, who was sworn in as a cadet in the United States military academy at West Point on July 1, has been assigned to fifth company, new cadet class, by Brigadier General Jay L. Benedict, superintendent. He is one of a group of 432 new cadets who have just been enrolled in the 1942 class.

For the next three weeks, Cadet Costain and his classmates will receive an intensive course of instruction in military subjects designed to fit them for formal entrance into the corps of cadets. On July 22, the class will be absorbed into the corps and will participate with the upper classes in routine activities, including the impressive parades for which the military academy is so famous.

During the month of August, the entire corps, less the second class, which is on furlough, will be encamped in the tent camp in Fort Clinton.

The last week in August will again be devoted to a dismounted practice march through the mountains southwest of West Point. The new cadets will be required to live in shelter tents during this period, and will receive their initiation to meals served from the army rolling kitchen.

September 1 will see the entire corps commencing its academic work for the year, having moved into barracks upon the return from the practice march. Classroom work will extend from 8 a. m. to 3 p. m., with an hour's intermission for lunch. Drills and compulsory intramural athletics will take up another hour in the afternoon.

The new class will be divided into sections of from 10 to 14 men for the academic work in conformity to the military academy system of instruction, and each cadet will be required to recite in each subject every day.
