

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yes, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

ALFRED HEGLAND

Alfred Hegland was born October 27, 1905 near Fosston, Minn., the son of Thor and Lena Berg Hegland. The family moved to Lessor Township, rural McIntosh in 1914 where Alfred grew up and attended rural school. He later worked for the Cook Sign Co. in Fargo, No. Dak. while attending the Hanson Mechanical Trade School.

Alfred was united in marriage to Edith Frisk on November 5, 1930 in McIntosh, Minn. and they resided and farmed in Lessor Township. Edith passed away on December 1, 1983.

Mr. Hegland was confirmed from the Trinity Lutheran Church and was a life long active member, where he served in various official capacities. Alfred was very musically inclined and enjoyed playing the violin.

Alfred Hegland passed away on Monday, December 2, 1991 at his home in Lessor Township at the age of 86.

Survivors include one son, Robert and his wife, Sharon of McIntosh; one sister, Amanda (Mrs. Grant) Nordskog of Fosston. Many nieces and nephews also survive.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Edith, his parents, seven brothers and two sisters.

Blessed Be His Memory
